OUR WORLD

Skagerak is an international design company established in 1976 in Denmark. The collection consists of indoor and outdoor furniture and accessories, designs made with sincere craftsmanship, certified materials and environmental considerations. Pieces that patinate beautifully and inspire people to live well and think long-term.

In 2022, Skagerak was acquired by Fritz Hansen, bringing two pioneering Danish furniture design brands together as one company. Fritz Hansen stands behind Skagerak to bring the best of Danish design to every part of life, indoors and outdoors. Together the two companies will expand design possibilities with high-quality craftsmanship and beautiful design.

OUR IMPACT

As a globally operating company, Skagerak has always striven to minimize its negative footprint and maximize positive impact. Always looking for new ways of operating - it is an ongoing journey and a collective responsibility that affects all corners of the company.

CERTIFIED ALL THE WAY ROUND

Skagerak has been B Corp certified since 2017. B Corp assesses the overall impact of a company rather than simply evaluating a product or service. B Corps balance profit and purpose by meeting the highest standards for social and environmental performance, accountability and transparency.

The certification is based on a rigorous assessment of a company's impact on workers, customers, community, environment and its governance, which results in a verified score. Skagerak's score is currently 102.2 - an average company typically scores around 50 points.

WE LOVE WOOD

The primary material in the Skagerak by Fritz Hansen collection is wood. Wood not only ensures great quality, it's also a natural and renewable material.

Skagerak supports responsible wood sourcing and forest management. We use FSC™-certified wood to ensure that no more trees are felled than the forest can reproduce – and that local communities, biodiversity and forest workers are treated with respect. Look for the FSC-logo displayed by our certified products on skagerak.com.

The total percentage of certified wood used in Skagerak pieces is currently at 93% and we are working to ensure 100% certified wood in our production by 2025.

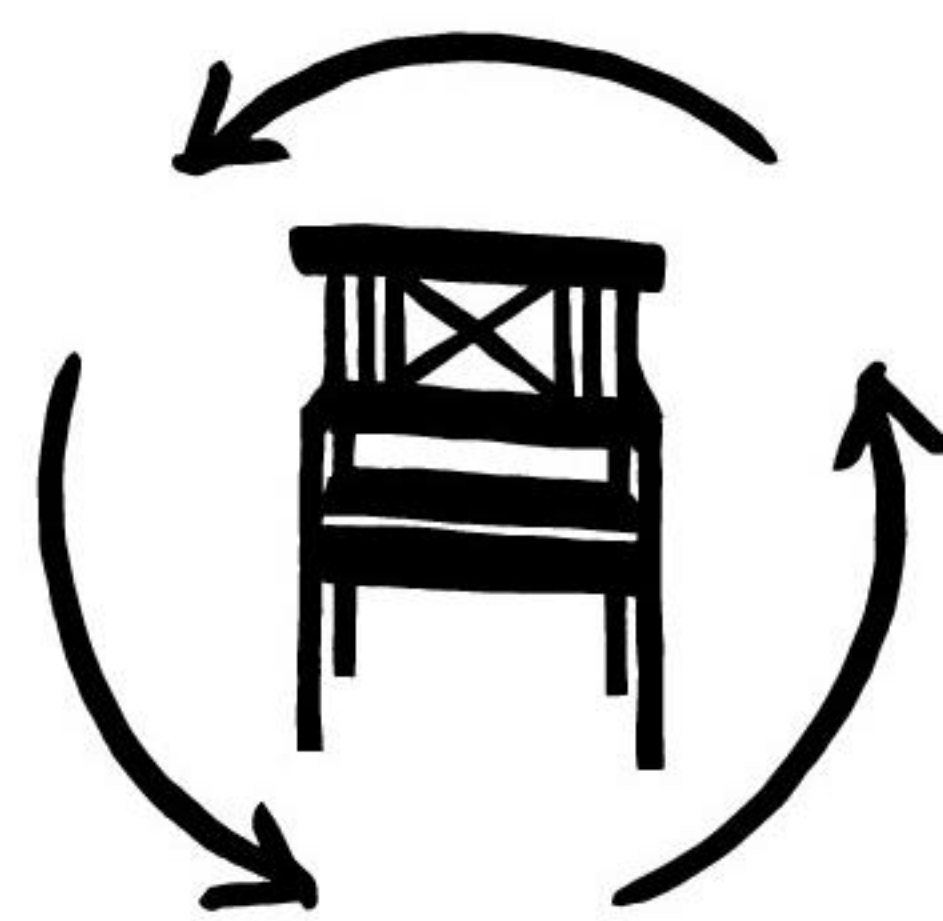

LET'S MAKE IT CIRCULAR

It's time to break the linear pattern of consumption and keep things in circulation. To design things that can be repaired, reused, regenerated or decomposed.

RECLASSIC is Skagerak's buy-back service for preloved Skagerak products. In this way, valuable materials are kept in circulation and live up to our promise to create furniture that lasts a lifetime.

RENT is a rental service that makes it easy to furnish the outdoor space while at the same time acting responsibly. RENT ensures the furniture a long lifespan where they are re-rented and used again and again.

These circular initiatives aim to help and inspire customers to use and re-use products and live up to our promise of long-lasting design.

WE CARE THAT YOU CARE

It matters whether a chair lives for 10, 20 or 30 years. Care & Repair on skagerak.com will help you find maintenance guides for all our products and choose the right spare parts to repair your design, so you can love it for many more years to come.

The Drachmann series is one of Skagerak's first collections. The signature collection in teak is inspired by an old romantic garden of the Danish poet and painter Holger Drachmann, and due to its balance between Nordic nostalgia and modern simplicity it is still a Skagerak bestseller.
